CHICO — During what Chico police are calling an "extremely busy" period, 116 people were arrested on various charges over the Halloween weekend.

The arrests took place between 5 p.m. Friday and 5 a.m. Monday.

Over the three nights, the biggest was Saturday-Sunday, when 57 people were arrested, according to figures released Monday by the police department.

The most common charge each night was drunk in public, with 20 arrests Friday-Saturday, 38 Saturday-Sunday, and 15 during the Sunday-Monday segment, for a total of 72.

Two stabbings were reported Friday night, with both victims at the same gathering sustaining minor injuries. They were unable to provide police with detailed information about the attacker.
